

Snooker newcomer Avon Placid has emerged from a field of 18 to win the Canterbury Junior Snooker held over the last two weeks at Richmond Club.

Placid, a local improving pool player and former Boxer beat Hugh McEaney in the final.

More details as they come to hand.